

STANDUP

FOR PUBLIC SERVICES AND TAX FAIRNESS

YOUR WORK IS UNDER ATTACK

The last recession left Ontario with a big budget deficit. Now, Premier Dalton McGuinty wants to pay it off with deep, painful cuts to public services.

The cuts he's planning will hurt. Some government ministries could be slashed by 33 per cent.

The agencies government pays for are on the chopping block, too. From the smallest women's shelter to the biggest hospital, no public service – or job – is safe.

Public services depend on the taxes we all pay. But as he cuts services for people, McGuinty is cutting taxes for corporations. His corporate income tax cuts will slash $2.4 billion a year from services and jobs. Meanwhile, people like Canada's top 100 CEOs – who made over $6.6 million a year in 2009 – can access loopholes that let them pay lower rates of tax than the rest of us. It's not fair. And it's not good for Ontario.

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

It's time communities talked about McGuinty's cuts – and what we could do instead. Your union is joining with the Public Services Foundation of Canada to hold community hearings and town hall forums across Ontario in early 2012.

We want to hear from frontline workers, service users, community groups, and experts on public services and tax fairness. Most of all, we want to hear from you.
